

PRESS RELEASE
For Immediate Release

Margaret Dobson is the new President-Elect Designee of the Arkansas Bar Association

Margaret Dobson of Sheridan is the new President-Elect Designee of the Arkansas Bar Association. She will serve a one-year term as President-Elect beginning in June 2022 before assuming the office of President at the Association's 2023 Annual Meeting.

A solo practitioner, Margaret has spent her career serving the Association and her community. She is currently serving as a member of the Association's Board of Trustees and the Executive Committee and has served on sections and in the House of Delegates. She is the city attorney for Redfield, is an attorney ad litem and has served as a Special Associate Justice on the Arkansas Supreme Court. She is a Rotarian and a Paul Harris Fellow and serves on a local and regional library board. She serves on an Incubator Committee at the Bowen School of Law. Margaret and her husband David have three sons. She is active in her church and in Boy Scouts.

Margaret graduated cum laude from Harding University with a Bachelor of Business Administration in 1990. She graduated with honest honors from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock School of Law with a Juris Doctor in 1999. She served as Executive Editor of the Law Review.

Founded in 1898, the Arkansas Bar Association is the premier legal association in the state. As a voluntary organization of more than 5,300 members, the Association's primary mission is to support attorneys; advance the practice of law; advocate for the legal profession; foster professionalism, civility, and integrity; and protect the rule of law.

###